I had the pleasure of employing Clayton Cross from 2012 until my retirement in 2018. As Sheriff, I needed someone who was trustworthy, capable of handling access to all case files, and skilled at solving problems efficiently. Clayton consistently demonstrated these qualities. He also minimized downtime through his prompt, reliable performance. Clayton was the person everyone turned to for help. He took every problem, whether large or small, seriously and made a point of explaining the cause to the employee so it could be avoided in the future. His patience, professionalism, and strong communication skills made him an invaluable member of the Sheriff's Office.
